MercerTrigiani Creating Frenzy for Legal Food Frenzy

Alexandria, Virginia (April 6, 2013) . . . What do an Alexandria luxury hotel, professional association, technology firm and family restaurant have in common?

This year, MercerTrigiani is recruiting the participation of Alexandria businesses and organizations to help in collecting non-perishable food items and raising money for 2013 Annual Legal Food Frenzy, an annual statewide food drive sponsored by the Office of the Attorney General, Virginia Bar Association and the Federation of Virginia Food Banks.

During April, MercerTrigiani law firm has plunged into a two week campaign of firm and community activities in support of the annual food drive. The following events will be held on Thursday, April 11:

- MercerTrigiani has invited several Alexandria businesses, including the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists and Focus Data Solutions to attend a luncheon, contributed by Chili's restaurant, in support of the annual food drive.
- MercerTrigiani and the Morrison House, a Kempton hotel, will host a wine tasting fundraiser from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. for members of the Alexandria Bar Association to benefit the Capital Area Food Bank. Door admission is $40.

According to the Virginia Bar Association, over the past five years, law firms, legal organizations and law schools who participated in the statewide Legal Food Frenzy have raised the equivalent of more than 8.5 million Pounds of food. In past years, MercerTrigiani has consistently led small law firms across the state in collecting food by the pound for distribution to local food banks.

Members of the media are invited to cover the business luncheon at MercerTrigiani or reception at the Morrison House. For more information, contact Patricia Hassard at pathreeds@msn.com or call 804/320-4959.
